Special Features:	A historic hotel reimagined for modern stays. Nestled in the leafy suburb of Heatherlands at the foot of the Outeniqua Mountains, The Hawthorn Boutique Hotel is one of George's most storied addresses — a landmark property that has graced the Garden Route since the 1940s, lovingly restored to its former grandeur and reimagined for the modern traveller. Old-world charm meets contemporary luxury in every corner of this celebrated five-star retreat. Manicured gardens, a sparkling swimming pool, and beautifully considered interiors create a sense of arrival that lingers long after checkout. Linger over a long lunch at The Forester Restaurant with its sweeping garden views, unwind in our intimate whisky and wine tasting room, or raise a glass in the Pronk Bar as the Garden Route evening settles in. For those seeking a venue as memorable as the occasion itself, The Hawthorn offers grand conference facilities, intimate executive boardrooms, and a wedding venue with a growing international reputation.
Comments:	For generations of George residents, the old Hawthorndene Hotel — with its towering palm trees and peacocks parading their magnificent plumage — was woven into the fabric of memory. Couples exchanged their vows here, families gathered for leisurely Sunday lunches, and many recall fondly the conviviality of its evenings. The property stood empty for many years, its grandeur fading into quiet neglect. It was a businessman from Rustenburg, having relocated to George, who recognised the hidden potential within these historic walls. Acquiring the property at auction in 2017, his deep appreciation for antiques and heritage architecture guided a sympathetic restoration — one that honoured the building's original character while thoughtfully introducing the comforts of modern luxury. Once again, this beloved George landmark has reclaimed its place as a destination for the discerning traveller.
